November

Berry Herb Nosegay

November 6th

Tuesday, 6:30-8:00 P.M.

A natural hanging swag of dried herbs, pods, and cones mingled with faux berries and accent flowers to highlight. Fragrant, natural, and brimming with the harvest glow of the season; bound with savory ribbon with flowing tails. This hanging swag will compliment the herb wreath, or will be beautiful on it's own.

$ 34.50

Everlasting Thanksgiving Centerpiece

November 19th

Thursday, 6:30-8:00 P.M.

Bound to grace your or your host's Thanksgivings table for years to come, this permanent design of autumn berries, pods, cones, and fall flowers in rich autumn colors will delight and add the magic of the harvest season to the table, buffet, or coffee table.

December

"Fresh Evergreen Wreath "

December 1st,

Tuesday 6:30- 8:00 P.M.

An annual event at The Garden Wall because of its popularity is brought back for the 5th year. Create your own wreath using the timeless technique of "hand tying". Using assorted berries, fresh evergreens and ribbons you will proudly display your old fashion "hand-tied" wreath.

$ 29.50

Fresh Christmas Centerpiece

December 15th,

Tuesday 6:30- 8:00 P.M.

Designed with mixed evergreens in a traditional style, this fresh centerpiece is as fragrant to the senses as it is pleasing to the eyes. Nestled in the greens you will find taper candles, cones, fresh berries, and a special Christmas keepsake. If kept watered and out of direct sunlight and heat, this centerpiece will enchant you and your guest with its creativity and fragrance through Christmas

Autumn Seeds

*Like whispers of the dawn-
They float and settle to the ground.
Tomorrow's birth to come...Glowing leaves rattle their souls-
Their seeds nestle into the chilling ground.
The winter will hold them fast.*

*In spring -
When the sun warms the coming cold-
Autumn seeds will grow.
The winter's chill will be forgotten.
Come spring-when they grow.
For autumn seeds have been sown.*

*Open House
Saturday, October 17th
10:00- 2:00 P.M.
567 K Street- Penrose
372-0927*

*The Garden Wall Floral company will be holding it's Fall season open house
